Philadelphia SmartCEO honors Collections Marketing Center (CMC) among its Future50 of 2013

Wilmington, DE., January 18, 2013 – Collections Marketing Center (CMC) joined over 550 attendees at last night's award ceremony in Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania. The event honored those top 50 companies in the area to exhibit exceptional growth and contributions in their community over the past three years.

"The companies we honored this year grew in spite of the economic hardships we have all been facing. These companies invested in themselves, and invested in their people and rose above the rest. They deserved to be recognized and celebrated because they are moving our economy and this region forward," says Jaime Nespore, group publisher of SmartCEO magazine, "We were proud to recognize them for their achievements and growth."

CMC CEO Vytas Kisielius remarked, "We are honored to be recognized as part of the Future50. It is further testament to the growth that our outstanding team has delivered. We look forward to a very bright 2013."

Future50 Awards program is the largest and most highly anticipated SmartCEO awards program of the year. The 50 winners are profiled in the January issue of SmartCEO magazine.
